ORDER

On this 24th day of November, 2026, upon consideration of Defendant's Motion for Reduction of Sentence[1], the Court states as follows[2]:

WHEREAS, upon indictment on April 14, 2025, Defendant was charged with Murder in the First Degree and related offenses;[3]

WHEREAS, on April 28, 2026, after an in-depth plea colloquy, Defendant pled guilty to Manslaughter and two counts of Possession of a Firearm During the Commission of a Felony;[4]

WHEREAS, in addition to the rights Defendant was advised that he would be giving up by accepting the plea, the Court advised Defendant that the plea is only a recommendation to which the Court is not bound;

[1] D.I. 24.

[2] While the Motion for Reduction of Sentence does not specifically reference a Superior Court rule, the Court has analyzed the Motion pursuant to Superior Court Criminal Rule 35(b).

[3] D.I. 2.

[4] D.I. 18.

WHEREAS, Defendant acknowledged the possibility that he could be sentenced to an amount beyond the recommended sentence and confirmed that he actually committed and was guilty of the pled crimes;

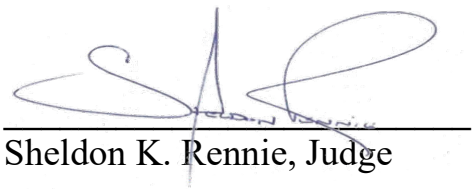
WHEREAS, on October 7, 2026, the Court sentenced Defendant within the range of the SENTAC sentencing guidelines;[5]

WHEREAS, Defendant filed a Motion for Reduction of Sentence to impose the sentence recommended by the parties primarily for institutional and systemic reasons;

WHEREFORE, after considering Defendant's Motion for Reduction of Sentence, the Court finds that the Defendant's sentence is appropriate for all the reasons set forth at sentencing.

Therefore, the Motion for Reduction of Sentence is DENIED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.



Sheldon K. Rennie, Judge
