

Ethics and Professional Responsibilities for Court Interpreters

Workshop Saturday, October 8, 2016

The Delaware Administrative Office of the Courts is pleased to offer a 1/2-day Court Interpreter Workshop on Ethics and Professional Responsibilities for Court Interpreters. This seminar will be free of charge for interpreters listed in the current Delaware Court Interpreter Registry and $35 for all others interested, space permitting. This workshop will be comprised of 3.5 hours of practice and lecture. Three½ CE credits will be awarded to attendees that successfully complete the workshop. This is a comprehensive training on the Code of Ethics, meant to achieve the following:

- ✓ that interpreters carefully review and understand the contents of the code
- ✓ that they acquire insights into applying its standards effectively
- ✓ that the CIP and its interpreters collaborate in supporting the standards of practice

Sections

- The Code, taking the oath to heart
- Ethically challenging scenarios
- Group exercise
- Response analysis
- Certificate of Completion

Speakers: Jennifer Figueira, CMI- Delaware Court Interpreter Program Coordinator; Court Interpreter Certified in the states of DE, MD, PA, NJ; National Board Certified Medical Interpreter; Translator; Transcriptionist; Instructor. Attendees will be encouraged to participate actively during this workshop.

The workshop will take place on Saturday, October 8, 2016 at the Wilmington University Wilson Graduate Center, 47 Reeds Way, New Castle, DE 19720, 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Cost is free for interpreters listed in the current Delaware Court Interpreter Registry, $35 for all others, subject to space availability. Registration and fees for this workshop must be received by September 26, 2016. You will receive a confirmation of your acceptance, a written exam to complete and return via email before the workshop, and directions to the facility. To register, please detach the form below and return it with a check or money order payable to the "State of Delaware". Mail form and payment to:
