

ADMINISTRATIVE DIRECTIVE
OF THE
CHANCELLOR OF THE COURT OF CHANCERY
OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE

NO. 2007-1

eFILE ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES

This 15th day of October, 2007, IT IS HEREBY DIRECTED that the following administrative procedures apply for electronic filing or eFiling of all civil miscellaneous actions pursuant to Rule 79.1:

eFile Administrative Procedures

1. Registration and fees for eFiling

- (a) Scope. Commencing December 3, 2007, every Civil Miscellaneous Action in the Court of Chancery, whether already pending or newly filed, shall be subject to electronic filing or eFiling.
- (b) Registration. Any person intending to use eFile must register with LexisNexis™ File & Serve at www.lexisnexis.com/fileandserve
- (c) Filing Fees.
 - (1) There are several parts to the fee structure for eFiling. These will be billed by LexisNexis using the billing arrangements established through the LexisNexis registration process. The parts are:
 - The routine filing fee and court costs for various pleadings (See generally Court of Chancery Rule 3.)
 - A court technology fee of 50 cents per document (Rule 79.1).
 - Security assessment fee of $10 per initiating filing.
 - LexisNexis File & Serve fees.
 - Pro Hac Vice fees (Rule 170(c)(vi)), technology dispute filing fees.
 - (2) The Rules impose a fee for mediations (Rule 174 and 174.1). Those fees will be billed by the Register in Chancery directly to the parties and will not be part of the LexisNexis billing process.

2. Minimum Technical Requirements

The minimum technical requirements for eFilings are available online at www.lexisnexis.com/fileandserve

3. Documents that must be electronically filed; Exceptions

Each document that must be filed under the Rules shall be eFiled unless otherwise ordered by the Court. Except that paper copies of any Complaint, Praecipe, Supplemental Information Form (Rule 3 (a)) shall be filed to facilitate service of process as required by the Rules and by statute. Paper courtesy copies of pleadings seeking judicial action shall only be filed at the discretionary request of the assigned judge. The cover page must indicate “COPY” and include the assigned Transaction ID number. An additional exception to the requirement of e-filing shall apply to survey maps, building plats, and similar descriptive exhibits. Such documents shall be submitted to the Register in Chancery, but the submitting party shall also e-file notice to all parties of the submission.

4. Form of Documents Electronically filed

(a) Format. Each electronically filed document shall be filed in Word, WordPerfect, TIFF or .PDF format, except that each electronically filed brief and proposed order shall be filed in editable Word or WordPerfect format. To the extent practicable each document shall be formatted in accordance with the applicable rules governing formatting of paper documents, and in such other and further format as the Register in Chancery may require from time to time. A document may exceed page limitation rules to a maximum of two (2) additional pages when the additional pages are attributed to the electronic conversion or filing process.

- (1) eFile will automatically convert any Word, WordPerfect or TIFF file to .PDF format, but the original format will also be available for downloading.
- (2) The official record of the court is the .PDF version.

(b) Title of Documents. The title of each electronically filed document shall include:

- (1) Party or parties filing the document,
- (2) Descriptive title of the document,
- (3) Party or parties against whom relief, if any, is sought, and

- (4) Nature of the relief sought (e.g., Defendant ABC Corporation’s Motion for Summary Judgment against Plaintiff Jones).

(c) Signature.

Each electronically filed document shall be deemed to have been signed by the attorney or party not represented by an attorney authorizing such filing, and shall bear a facsimile or typographical signature of such person, e.g., “/s/ Adam Attorney.” Each document eFiled by or on behalf of a party shall also include the typed name, address, and telephone number of the attorney or unrepresented party filing such document. Attorneys shall include their Delaware bar number.

Each electronically filed declaration and affidavit shall be deemed to have been signed by the declarant or affiant if an attorney or party not represented by an attorney has authorized such filing. The original affidavit or declaration filed or served electronically, shall be maintained by the party filing the affidavit during the pendency of the litigation, and shall be made available, upon reasonable notice, for inspection by other counsel, the Register in Chancery or the Court.

(d) Filing Related Documents.

All electronically filed documents relating to a single pleading or paper shall be “electronically stapled” using the “main” and “supporting” functionality of the eFiling system. Pleadings seeking judicial action such as Proposed Orders shall be filed separately as supporting documents. In this way, multiple related documents, although filed separately, are linked logically together and identified as a single transaction.

All electronically filed documents, papers or pleadings directly relating to a previously-filed document, paper or pleading shall be linked to the previously filed document, paper or pleading, using the “linked to” feature in the eFiling system.

Failure to properly link document will result in rejection of filing by the Register in Chancery.

5. Time of eFiling and Service

- (a) Any document filed electronically by 11:59 pm ET shall be considered eFiled with the Register in Chancery once the transmission is successfully completed (“authorized date and time”) as recorded on the LexisNexis File & Serve system.

- (b) An eFiled document is deemed served only upon selection of parties to be served and submission according to the File & Serve procedures. The electronic service of a pleading or other document in the eFiling system is considered valid and effective service on all parties and shall have the same legal effect as conventional service of an original paper or document. The filing party is not required to conventionally serve a paper copy of the electronically filed document on parties not subscribing to the eFiling system. LexisNexis shall serve subscribing parties electronically and non-subscribing parties via facsimile or US Mail. The associated filing receipt will list the parties selected for service and give proof of date, time and method of service.

6. Public Access to the Docket

The Register in Chancery (or designee) in each county shall make a Public Access Terminal available to interested parties to allow access to the Court's electronic case record in all eFiled cases. Copies made from the Court's electronic case records shall be printed by the Register in Chancery's Office and copying fees will be charged in accordance with Rule 3.

7. Related eFile Documents

The following eFile instructions and practice guides are available on the Court of Chancery's Web site (<http://courts.state.de.us/chancery>) or in the Register in Chancery's Office:

8. System or User Filing Errors.

It is recommended that parties seek to resolve filing and service errors based on technical failures amongst themselves. Otherwise, if the electronic filing is not filed and served with the Register in Chancery because of (1) an error in the transmission of the document to LexisNexis File & Serve which was unknown to the sending party, or (2) a failure to process the electronic filing when received by LexisNexis File & Serve, or (3) rejection by the Register in Chancery, or (4) other technical problems experienced by the filer, the Court may upon satisfactory proof enter an order permitting the document to be filed or served nunc pro tunc to the date it was first attempted to be sent electronically.

9. Obligation of Registered eFile Users to Maintain Proper Delivery Information.

Parties or attorneys who register to use the File & Serve system shall notify LexisNexis File & Serve within 10 days of any change in firm name, delivery address, fax number or e-mail address.
