(d) A person licensed to practice as a foreign legal consultant under this Rule may render legal services in this jurisdiction with respect to the law of the foreign country or countries in which the Foreign Legal Consultant is admitted to practice law, but shall not be considered admitted to practice law in this jurisdiction, or in any way hold himself out as a member of the bar of this jurisdiction, or do any of the following:

- (2) prepare any instrument effecting the transfer or registration of title to real estate located in the United States of America;
- (3) prepare:
 - (A) any will or trust instrument effecting the disposition on death of any property located and owned by a resident of the United States of America, or
 - (B) any instrument relating to the administration of a decedent's estate in the United States of America;
- (4) prepare any instrument in respect of the marital or parental relations, rights or duties of a resident of the United States of America, or the custody or care of the children of such a resident;
- (5) render professional legal advice on the law of this State, of any other jurisdiction in which he or she is not authorized to practice law or of the United States of America (whether rendered incident to the preparation of legal instruments or otherwise);
- (6) carry on a practice under, or utilize in connection with such practice, any name, title or designation other than one or more of the following:
 - (A) the foreign legal consultant's own name;
 - (B) the name of the law firm with which the foreign legal consultant is affiliated;

- (D) the title “foreign legal consultant,” which may be used in conjunction with the words “admitted to the practice of law in [name of the foreign country of his or her admission to practice].”
- (e) Subject to the limitations listed in Section (d) of this Rule, a person licensed under this Rule shall be considered a foreign legal consultant affiliated with the bar of this jurisdiction and shall be entitled and subject to:
 - (1) the rights and obligations set forth in the Delaware Lawyers’ Rules of Professional Conduct or arising from the other conditions and requirements that apply to a member of the Delaware Bar under the Rules of the Supreme Court; and
 - (2) the rights and obligations of a member of the bar of this jurisdiction with respect to:
 - (A) affiliation in the same law firm with one or more members of the bar of this jurisdiction, including by:
 - (i) employing one or more members of the bar of this jurisdiction;
 - (ii) being employed by one or more members of the bar of this jurisdiction or by any partnership or professional corporation that includes members of the bar of this jurisdiction or that maintains an office in this jurisdiction; and

 - (B) attorney-client privilege, work product privilege and similar professional privileges.
 - (C) A person licensed to practice as a foreign legal consultant under this Rule shall be subject to professional discipline in the same manner and to the same extent as members of the bar of this jurisdiction. To this end:

- (i) Every person licensed to practice as a foreign legal consultant under this Rule:
 - a. shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court and to censure, suspension, removal or revocation of his or her license to practice by the Supreme Court and shall otherwise be governed by Supreme Court Rules; and
 - b. shall execute and file with the Supreme Court, in the form and manner as the court may prescribe:
 - 1. a commitment to observe the Delaware Lawyers' Rules of Professional Conduct and the Rules of the Supreme Court to the extent applicable to the legal services authorized under this Rule;
 - 2. an undertaking or appropriate evidence of professional liability insurance, in an amount as the court may prescribe, to assure the foreign legal consultant's proper professional conduct and responsibility;

- (ii) Service of process on the clerk under this Rule shall be made by personally delivering to the clerk's office, and leaving with the clerk, or with a deputy or assistant authorized by the clerk to receive service, duplicate copies of the process together with a fee as set by the Supreme Court. The clerk shall promptly send one copy of the process to the foreign legal consultant to whom the process is directed, by certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the foreign legal consultant at the most recent address provided to the clerk.
- (f) A person licensed as a foreign legal consultant shall file and pay the annual registration and assessment provided in Supreme Court Rule 69.
- (g) The applicant's authority to practice as a foreign legal consultant as granted by this Rule shall be automatically suspended when (1) the applicant fails to comply with any provision of this Rule; or (2) when the lawyer is suspended or disbarred for disciplinary reasons in any jurisdiction of the United States or by any federal court or agency or by any foreign nation before which the applicant has been admitted to practice as a lawyer or counselor at law or the equivalent. Any applicant whose authority to practice has been suspended under this section may be considered for reinstatement in accordance with Rule 22 of the Delaware Lawyers' Rules of Disciplinary Procedure.

- (h) If a person licensed as a foreign legal consultant under this Rule is subsequently admitted as a member of the bar of this jurisdiction under the Rules governing admission, that person's foreign legal consultant license shall be deemed superseded by the license to practice law as a member of the bar of this jurisdiction.
- (i) The Supreme Court may adopt such additional regulations as needed to implement this Rule.
