

“The Family Court Called – You’ve Been Appointed”

Family Court of the State of Delaware, Delaware Volunteer Legal Services, and Office of the Child Advocate are offering 2.0 CLE hours including .5 ethics.

This training is designed for practitioners who have been appointed by the Family Court to represent a parent or child in non-DSCYF proceedings, including guardianships, termination of parental rights and custody. The training will cover the court appointment process, how to set client expectations and communicate with your client, legal proceedings, discovery and trial preparation, litigating a case and ethical issues which may arise. The training will also include specific tips from litigators and judges.
