

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 14, 2007

CHIEF JUSTICE MYRON T. STEELE NAMED AS AN ADVISOR TO THE BUSINESS LAW SECTION OF THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION

Chief Justice Myron T. Steele of the Supreme Court of Delaware was recently named an advisor to the Business Law Section of the American Bar Association, one of the preeminent sections of the American Bar Association. Chief Justice Steele was chosen for his expertise in corporate law and litigation. He will participate in a panel discussion on Changes in the Legal Profession on Saturday, March 17, 2007 during the ABA's Business Section Spring Meeting in Washington, DC. Additionally, Chief Justice Steele will meet with representatives of Delaware's Congressional delegation during his stay in Washington.

For further information, please contact Patricia W. Griffin, Esquire,
State Court Administrator
At 302-856-5406