CHIEF JUSTICE MYRON T. STEELE INVITED TO ADDRESS THE 35TH AUSTRALIAN LEGAL CONVENTION

Chief Justice Myron T. Steele of the Supreme Court of Delaware has accepted an invitation from Chief Justice Anthony Murray Gleeson of the High Court of Australia to address the 35th Australian Legal Convention on Saturday, March 24, 2007 in Sydney, Australia. Chief Justice Steele will address multi-jurisdictional legal practices. Before arriving in Sydney, Chief Justice Steele will meet in Canberra at the invitation of the Law Council of Australia on March 20, 2007 to serve on a panel discussion on international trade and to continue discussions relating to inter-jurisdictional legal services with Australia. On March 22, 2007 Chief Justice Steele will address the Law Society of the State of New South Wales and meet with the judiciary of the Federal Court of Australia.

Accompanying Chief Justice Steele to Australia are Donald E. Reid, Esquire, Chair of the Delaware Board of Bar Examiners; Ms. Cynthia Kane, Special Assistant to the Delaware Secretary of State, International; and Mr. Peter Gelles, Esquire, International Law Section of the State Bar of California.
