FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE September 26, 2006

Justice Randy J. Holland of the Delaware Supreme Court has been invited by Justice Sandra Day O'Connor and Justice Stephen Breyer to be a discussion leader at a Conference on the State of the Judiciary: Fair and Independent Courts. In addition to Justices O'Connor and Breyer, speakers include Chief Justice John Roberts and Attorney General Alberto Gonzales. The purpose of the Conference is to gather suggestions from invited national leaders in the business, media, education and non-profit sectors for improving the administration of justice in both federal and state courts. The conference is on September 28 and 29, 2006 at the Georgetown University Law Center in Washington, DC and is co-sponsored by the American Law Institute.
