PRESS RELEASE

KRIS PRITCHETT HONORED BY DELAWARE STATE BAR ASSOCIATION WITH THE RUBENSTEIN AWARD

Mary Katherine (Kris) Pritchett, received the Myrna Lomish Rubenstein Professional Support Recognition Award from the Delaware State Bar Association in a Law Day ceremony in the Gold Ball Room of the Hotel duPont. The award recognizes long and dedicated service to the Bench and Bar of the State of Delaware, to the Bar Association, and to its Members which has contributed in a significant way to them and to the high ideals of the legal profession. The award was named after the late Myrna Lomish Rubenstein, wife of Harvey Bernard Rubenstein, Esquire, past president of the Bar Association, and his office manager.

Kris is a judicial secretary to Justice Randy J. Holland of the Delaware Supreme Court. In recognizing Kris' achievement, Justice Randy J. Holland, expressed his appreciation of Kris' outstanding service during her more than 30 years of providing him with administrative support from the time he was in private practice through the eighteen years he has served on the Supreme Court. Justice Holland stated that: "Through her dedicated work, Kris has provided many years of service assisting me in managing my workload and Chambers, as well as assisting in completing significant assignments outside of my usual case work such as helping me with numerous books and articles and work related to my service as President of the American Inns of Court Foundation. Through her indefatigable efforts, she has been an instrumental participant in my work both in private practice and during my service on the Supreme Court. Kris' award is well-deserved and I, as well as the other members of the Supreme Court are pleased that Kris' contributions are being recognized by the Bar Association. In addition, this recognition of high quality administrative support also reflects on all of those in the Judicial Branch who provide outstanding professional support to the Delaware judges to ensure the efficient operations of the Delaware Courts. We are most grateful to Kris for her dedication and high level of service.”
