

Amendments to Delaware Supreme Court Rules 93, 94, and 95

By an order dated May 24, 2016, the Delaware Supreme Court has replaced Rules 94 and 95 with a new Rule 93. These amendments are effective immediately. The rule amendments are available on the Court's website.

Supreme Court Rule 93 establishes a Permanent Advisory Committee on Supreme Court Rules, Rules of Civil and Criminal Procedure, and Rules of Evidence. In light of recent amendments to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and after discussions with other courts in this State, the Court concluded that one committee should monitor the Rules of this Court, the Delaware Uniform Rules of Evidence, and the various trial courts' Rules of Civil and Criminal Procedure to ensure the efficiency, fairness, and consistency of these rules. Rule 93 provides that the Permanent Advisory Committee on Supreme Court Rules, Rules of Civil and Criminal Procedure, and Rules of Evidence will create a subcommittee to, among other things, consider whether any of this State's rules should be amended to incorporate any changes to analogous federal rules of evidence and procedure.
