Re: Danieli Corporation v. ArcelorMittal LaPlace, LLP,
Del. Supr., No. 467, 2013

Dear Ms. Howard:

Appellee ArcelorMittal LaPlace, LLP would like to bring to the Court's attention an error recently discovered in Appellee's Answering Brief (transaction ID 54439703). The minor error is in the first full sentence on page 15. In reciting the facts of the Harleysville case,¹ Appellee unintentionally confused the parties' names. The sentence should read: "In particular, the issue was whether Church had received proper and timely notice from Capital Management Company as an additional insured on the Church policy when Church's primary insured (Cathedral Community Services) as well as Capital Management had both notified Church of the accident."

We regret the error and apologize for any confusion it may have caused. Appellees would be happy to submit an amended brief if the Court so directs.

Respectfully submitted,

Jill Agro
