

NOTICE TO ALL DEFENDANTS
WHO DO NOT PAY IN FULL TODAY

You must report any change of address to the Court in person or in writing within 5 days of change.

You are hereby given notice of the unpaid fines, costs, fees, and/or restitution as the amount indicated on the sentencing order (Time to Pay Agreement). Said amount was imposed by Order of this Court as part of a criminal or civil sentence. To secure payment, you are hereby put on notice the Court can among other things, take the following action (s):

CONTEMPT OF COURT -

Failure to make payments or ask for more time and failure to cooperate with any collection efforts listed below can result in your arrest and a Civil Contempt of Court charge against you. A Civil Contempt of Court could result in a sentence to jail to 170 days and/or additional fines and penalties.

WORK REFERRAL -

The Court may order the defendant to work referral to collect fines and penalties.

WAGE ASSIGNMENT -

The Court may collect outstanding fines and penalties through a voluntary wage assignment.

DRIVER'S LICENSE -

The Court may direct the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) to suspend your driver's license and withhold issuance or renewal of your license until all of your payments are made current.

INCOME TAX REFUND -

The Court can intercept tax refund proceeds and apply them to payment of outstanding fines and penalties.

PROBATION BEFORE JUDGMENT (PBJ) PLEAS: -

Upon failure to comply with any term of the probation sentence, including payment of fines and penalties, the Court can withdraw the PBJ and enter a judgment of guilt against you.

*This list is not exhaustive. Be aware the Court may take other appropriate action to secure your compliance.
