Payment can be made online at (courtpay.delaware.gov). Payment by credit card (VISA, MASTERCARD, DISCOVER) may be made by mail, with a copy of your ticket with your credit card information. DO NOT MAIL CASH. If a receipt is needed, please enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope. Tickets paid by mail are to be mailed to appropriate court or town.

VOLUNTARY ASSESSMENT CENTER (VAC) ONLINE PAYMENT PLAN: How does it work? The VAC will allow you 30 days from the date the ticket was issued to request a payment plan with three equal payments. Paying the ticket in full may be done anytime within the 90-day period without penalty. If you need a different payment plan, you must request a transfer to a Justice of the Peace Court with an explanation. How to set up an online payment plan: Go to courtpay.delaware.gov (Welcome to ePayment). Select "Deferred Amount". If the option is not available, the ticket does not qualify for an online payment plan. For further assistance, contact the appropriate Voluntary Assessment Center during their normal business hours Monday-Friday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. For all Alderman Court information, please contact the Alderman Court listed on your ticket.
