COURT OF CHANCERY ANNOUNCES
REVISED GUIDELINES FOR PERSONS LITIGATING IN THE COURT OF CHANCERY

The Court of Chancery has today posted on its website updated Guidelines and Forms to help counsel and other persons litigating in the Court of Chancery. The Guidelines review the expectations for remote and courtroom hearings and trials and offer best practices for litigating cases in the Court of Chancery.

The Forms include stipulations and orders governing case scheduling, briefing on motions, expert discovery, and the production and exchange of confidential and highly confidential information.
