The Honorable Loren Mitchell Joins The Court Of Chancery As Master In Chancery

On December 5, 2022, the Honorable Loren Mitchell joined the Court of Chancery as Master in Chancery. Her Chambers will be located in the Leonard L. Williams Justice Center in Wilmington.

Master Mitchell graduated cum laude from North Carolina Central University School of Law and received her BA from the University of Delaware. After graduating law school, Master Mitchell served as a law clerk in the New Jersey Superior Court from 2008 to 2009.

Master Mitchell fills a newly funded Master in Chancery position, and she brings a wealth of experience to the bench. She began her career in private practice at the law firm of Marshall, Dennehey, Warner, Coleman & Goggin in Wilmington. She then worked at Paul Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP in Wilmington, before entering the public sector as an Assistant City Solicitor for the City of Wilmington.

Immediately prior to her appointment to the bench, Master Mitchell was a Deputy Attorney General at the Delaware Department of Justice. There, Master Mitchell served as General Counsel to the Department of Labor's Division of Industrial Affairs, the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, and the Department of Health and Social Services. She also served as Unit Head in the Civil Division and chaired the Department's Diversity and Inclusion Committee.

Master Mitchell is actively involved in community and professional organizations. She has served on the Executive Committee of the Multicultural Judges and Lawyers Section since 2017 and on the Board of First State Montessori Academy since 2019. She has also taught legal writing and paralegal studies as an adjunct instructor at the University of Delaware and Wilmington University.
