Vice Chancellor Sam Glasscock III is sworn in for his second term on the Delaware Court of Chancery

The Honorable Sam Glasscock III was sworn in for his second term as Vice Chancellor of the Delaware Court of Chancery on Friday, June 30, 2023, at the Court of Chancery Courthouse in Georgetown by Master in Chancery Bonnie W. David.

Vice Chancellor Glasscock said he is honored to be reappointed to such a significant position and thanked the Governor and the Senate for the trust they placed in him. “I look forward to continuing to serve the citizens of Delaware on the Court of Chancery,” he said.

Vice Chancellor Glasscock was first appointed as Vice Chancellor by Gov. Jack Markell, taking his oath for his initial term on June 29, 2011. Prior to accepting his appointment as Vice Chancellor, he served the Court of Chancery as a Master in Chancery from 1999 to 2011.

Before joining the Court of Chancery, Vice Chancellor Glasscock worked as a judicial clerk, as an associate at Prickett, Jones, Elliott, Kristol & Schnee in the litigation section, as a Superior Court special discovery master, and as a Deputy Attorney General in the Appeals Unit of the Department of Justice.

Vice Chancellor Glasscock was born in Erie, Pennsylvania and spent most of his youth in Lewes, Delaware. He received a B.A. in History from the University of Delaware in 1979, a J.D. from Duke University in 1983 and a Master’s Degree in Marine Policy from the University of Delaware in 1989.
