- Please continue to check courts.delaware.gov/traffic for updates

The scheduled start of traffic-related construction delays around the Leonard L. Williams Justice Center, set for Thursday, Sept. 12, 2024, has been postponed. The project remains on track, and other construction continues on the expansion and renovation of the Custom House, but a new date for the road closures was not immediately set.

Once a new date and new details are available, they will be posted on the Delaware Judiciary website on the traffic page: courts.delaware.gov/traffic
