Posting #AOC0601N22

TRAINING SPECIALIST

Opening Date: June 15, 2022 Closing Date: June 29, 2022
Contract Rate: $30/hour – approximately 35 hours per week
Recruiting For: Office of the Child Advocate
Location: New Castle County, City of Wilmington

This position is funded by a federal Children’s Justice Act Grant monitored by the Criminal Justice Council. This grant is awarded annually. This position will be housed in the City of Wilmington office.

Background: The Office of the Child Advocate (OCA) is a State agency, housed within the judicial branch, charged with safeguarding the welfare of Delaware’s children. It has 25 full-time employees, six casual/seasonal employees and twelve contractors. OCA operates out of all three counties, representing approximately 550 children in or who have aged out of DSCYF custody through its attorneys and Court Appointed Special Advocate program. It also monitors over 900 serious child abuse cases through its Office of the Investigation Coordinator (IC), and provides intensive reviews of children who have died or almost died from abuse or neglect through its Child Abuse and Neglect (CAN) Panel. It manages post-secondary scholarships for youth who have experienced foster care. It provides staffing to the Child Protection Accountability Commission (CPAC) and its numerous committees and workgroups as well as coordinates all CPAC trainings. Finally, it manages, generates and analyzes data for the entire child welfare system.

Summary Statement: This independent contractor position will support the work of CPAC by accomplishing such tasks as developing new online and in-person/virtual training programs and curricula; reviewing and updating existing online and in-person/virtual training programs and curricula; coordinating with agency personnel, community/professional organizations, and other providers to develop training programs and curricula; utilizing CPAC's e-learning software to develop online training programs and curricula; administering CPAC's learning management system to support online learners, deliver online training programs and track attendance; planning and coordinating in-person/virtual training programs and the biennial conference; presenting in-person/virtual training programs to community/professional organizations; collecting and evaluating data from online, in-person and virtual training programs; providing recommendations regarding training needs and the effectiveness of training resources; and designing social media posts, website content, newsletters, brochures and annual reports.

Job Requirements: Applicants must have education, training and/or experience demonstrating competence in each of the following areas:

1. Possession of a Bachelor's Degree in a relevant field, such as instructional design, social or behavioral sciences or training and development fields.
2. At least one year experience presenting training or education courses using a variety of training methods such as lecture, e-learning, structured exercises, role play or group discussion as well as the use of training materials such as overheads, PowerPoint, handouts or videos.
3. Six months experience in preparing and developing training or education courses which includes designing learning objectives, curricula and materials.
4. Knowledge of developing and analyzing training needs assessments at the individual, job or organizational level.
5. Knowledge of e-learning software (e.g., Articulate) and learning management systems.

Special Requirement: Ability to successfully complete a security clearance as issued by the State of Delaware Bureau of Identification and a Child Protection Registry check.

Conditions of Employment:

- A satisfactory criminal background check is required as a condition of employment.
- Direct deposit of paychecks is required as a condition of employment.
