Closing Date: Open Until Filled

Vacancy exists

Salary: $27,676 - $32,560 (85% – Midpoint) Pay Grade 7

Recruiting For: Superior Court of Delaware

Location: Sussex County Courthouse, Georgetown, (Please check this county on your application).

Summary Statement:

The class incumbent is responsible for maintaining order, providing security, and performing various court related duties in a court facility. This is a uniformed position with court issued gear.

Nature and Scope:

This is the first level in the Court Security Officer series. Employees report to a technical supervisor and are responsible for performing the full range of court security related duties. Employees enforce courtroom and court facility policies and procedures relative to safety, security and orderliness. Work involves providing the first level of response for disruptions to court operations which may include high risk court cases. Employees may have the power of arrest. Employees may also listen through headset as court proceedings are electronically recorded to ensure the proceedings are accurately captured, including events such as opening statements, witnesses' name, direct and cross examinations and summations. Contacts include judicial officers, attorneys, jurors, witnesses, court personnel and the general public for the purpose of providing court information, explaining court processes, providing court security, controlling behavior and serving as a liaison between court participants.

Essential Functions:

Essential functions are fundamental, core functions common to all positions in the class series and are not intended to be an exhaustive list of all job duties for any one position in the class. Since class specifications are descriptive and not restrictive, incumbents can complete job duties of similar kind not specifically listed here.

- Enforces courtroom and court facility policies and procedures relative to safety, security and orderliness using defensive tactics and devices such as subduing individuals disturbing court proceedings, handcuffing and using chemical propellants.
- Assesses potentially disruptive and violent situations and takes preventative actions; calms volatile situations, responds to emergencies and requests extra security.
- Sets up, operates and maintains various electronic equipment such as paging systems, wireless microphones, audiovisual systems, audio and video recorders, overhead projectors, two way radios, metal detectors and surveillance cameras.
- Directs individuals in court proceedings, notifies court personnel, attorneys and parties involved to be present in the courtroom, seats individuals in specific areas of the courtroom; checks in defendants and opens court by announcing the entrance of the judicial officer.
- Inspects courtroom and court facility for explosives, firearms, and weapons. Searches individuals entering court facility and confiscates unauthorized weapons.
- Prepares records and reports such as log notes and incident reports; marks, logs and retrieves files, forms and related items and information for use by court staff.
- Uses automated information systems such as civil and criminal case management systems, and criminal information systems to enter, update, modify, delete, retrieve, inquire or report on data.

Minimum Qualifications: Please address each item separately on the Minimum Qualifications page of the application. Resumes may not be substituted for the application. Failure to do so will result in disqualification. Applicants must meet each of the following qualifications. Failure in any one area will result in a rating of “not qualified.”

1. Six months experience in security such as providing protective services to persons, facilities or grounds from trespassing, theft and other conditions.
2. Six months experience in record keeping which includes maintaining records, logs, and filing systems.
3. Six months experience in using an automated information system to enter, update, modify, delete, retrieve/inquire and report on data.
4. Ability to communicate clearly and effectively.

Conditions of Employment:

- A satisfactory criminal background check is required as a condition of hire and to maintain employment.
- Direct deposit of paychecks is required as a condition of employment.
