Summary Statement:

A class incumbent is responsible for the verbatim recording and transcribing of trials, proceedings, hearings and conferences in Superior Court.

Nature and Scope:

A class incumbent performs with general supervision from the Chief Court Reporter. Incumbents have contact with court personnel, parties, witnesses, attorneys from government agencies, private industry and law firms and the public for the purposes of making arrangements for the preparation and delivery of transcripts, confirming quoted material and obtaining spelling of technical terms and proper names. An incumbent is responsible for the absolute accuracy and completeness of the verbatim record and must be able to report and produce a satisfactory transcript volume over a sustained work period, as well as produce transcripts of court proceedings on an expedited basis from time to time as needed.

Minimum Education and Experience Requirements:

Applicants must show in the judicial application; education, training and/or experience in each of the following areas. Failure in any one area will result in a rating of "Not Qualified." (Resume, transcripts and training certificates may be included as supporting documentation. Resumes may not be substituted for the application.)

1. Graduation from a court reporting school or a university or college having a court reporting curriculum, including or supplemented by courses in standard stenographic methods of taking testimony and dictation and specialized training in reporting and transcribing judicial proceedings involving experts in highly technical professions, businesses and industries.

2. Experience as a stenographic reporter recording and transcribing verbatim proceedings of judicial or quasi-judicial hearings, conferences and meetings in a court system.

Mandatory Requirements:

- Possession of a Registered Professional Reporter (RPR) certification and in good standing from the National Court Reporters Association and maintain said licensing throughout duration of employment.
- Must own a CAT realtime capable system at the time of hire.
- Must be realtime proficient.

Conditions of Employment: Direct deposit of paychecks is required as a condition of employment.

- A satisfactory criminal background check is required as a condition of hire and to maintain employment.
- Must possess a valid driver's license at the time of hire and through the duration of employment.
