

ADMINISTRATIVE DIRECTIVE NO. 116

This 20th day of March, 1998;

IT APPEARS THAT:

(1) Administrative Directive Number Seventy-Two promulgated on February 26, 1987, directed that:

"Each court in this State (other than the Court of Common Pleas and Justice of the Peace Courts) shall maintain a separate file containing copies of the motions and certificates relating to pro hac vice admissions alphabetically, by attorney, on an ongoing basis. Each court shall file with the Administrative Office of the Courts on or before February 1 of each year an alphabetical listing of all attorneys admitted to that court pro hac vice during the previous calendar year with an indication of the number of cases in which pro hac vice applications were made and granted a given attorney in the preceding calendar year."

(2) Pro hac vice admissions are now recorded and maintained by the Supreme Court.

(3) It is no longer necessary for each specified court to maintain separate files relating to pro hac vice admissions and to report this information annually to the Administrative Office of the Courts.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS DIRECTED, with the unanimous approval of the Justices of the Supreme Court (pursuant to Delaware Constitution, art. IV, § 13) that:

Effective immediately, Administrative Directive Number Seventy-Two is hereby rescinded.
