

SECOND REVISION
ADMINISTRATIVE DIRECTIVE NO. 155

This <sup>29th</sup> day of November 2005

IT APPEARS THAT:

(1) On April 5, 2004, Administrative Directive No. 155 was issued relating to expanded electronic media coverage of judicial proceedings in trial courts.

(2) In that Directive, it was stated that the expanded coverage was "effective April 15, 2004 . . . during an experimental period ending on October 15, 2004, unless extended by a further Administrative Directive or Supreme Court Rule. . . ."

(3) At the request of the Bar Bench Media Conference, the Supreme Court extended the experimental period to permit the electronic news media to cover cases that might arise in an extended experimental period. The Court extended the experimental period until May 16, 2005 under Amended Administrative Directive No. 155.

(4) The Bar-Bench-Media Conference has requested that the Supreme Court extend the experimental period indefinitely.

(5) The Court has evaluated the Conference's request and agrees that it is desirable to extend the experimental period indefinitely.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS DIRECTED, with the approval of a majority of the members of the Supreme Court, pursuant to Delaware Constitution, art. IV, §13(1), that Administrative Directive No. 155 is hereby amended by indefinitely extending the experimental period until further Directive from the Court.
