

Court of Common Pleas releases additional information regarding scheduling of cases for June and July 2020 in New Castle County

The Court of Common Pleas has issued this release to remind members of the public that if they have received notices to appear in the Court of Common Pleas in New Castle County for in-person court events in either June or July 2020, they should only appear if, and only if, they received a second notice to appear. Otherwise, members of the public should direct questions about when they should appear for Court matters to (302) 255-0900.
