ADMINISTRATIVE DIRECTIVE NO. 108
THIRD AMENDMENT

This 11th day of April, 2003:

IT APPEARS THAT:

(1) On February 2, 1996, the Governor of the State of Delaware approved legislation that empowers the judges of Delaware's constitutional and statutory courts to solemnize marriages. S.B. 249, 138th Gen. Assembly, 2d Sess. (1996) (amending 13 Del. C. § 106).

(2) Title 13, Chapter 1 of the Delaware Code sets forth certain requirements to be followed by officials performing marriage ceremonies in this State.

(a) Before performing a marriage ceremony, an official (the "officiant") must be provided with a valid marriage license. 13 Del. C. § 107(b). The complete marriage license ("Marriage Form") consists of a three-page form. See Marriage Form attached as Appendix A. The Marriage Form has three identical pages identified as Bride and Groom copy, State file copy, and Officiant's copy ("File Copies"). The Marriage Form will have been partly completed by the Clerk of the Peace, with the remaining portions to be completed by the officiant.

(b) Immediately following the marriage ceremony, the officiant must complete and deliver to the newlyweds the File Copy identified as "Bride and Groom" of the Marriage Form, which evidences the marriage and the date and place thereof. 13 Del. C. § 115(b).

(c) Within 4 days following the ceremony, the officiant must certify the fact of marriage by returning completed copy to the Clerk of the Peace in the county where the license was issued:

New Castle: Clerk of the Peace
87 Read's Way
New Castle, DE 19720

Kent: Clerk of the Peace
Kent County Administration Building
414 Federal Street
Dover, DE 19901

Sussex: Clerk of the Peace
Sussex County Courthouse
P.O. Box 29
Georgetown, DE 19947

(e) The officiant must retain completed Officiant's File Copy for his or her records for not less than one year after the ceremony. 13 Del. C. § 114.

(3) To comply with the record-keeping requirements set forth in 13 Del. C. § 114, it is desirable to maintain a central file record and docket of marriage ceremonies performed by judges pursuant to the new legislation.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS DIRECTED, with the unanimous concurrence of the members of the Supreme Court (Del. Const. art. IV, § 13) that:

A. A central file record and docket of marriages performed by judges of this State shall be maintained by the Administrative Office of the Courts, and shall include the following information: (i) date of marriage; (ii) name of judge performing ceremony; (iii) names of persons married; (iv) residence(s) of persons married; (v) marriage license number.

B. Within thirty days of the event, each judge shall file with the Administrative Office of the Courts a report of any marriage ceremonies performed by that judge, which shall include the original Officiant's File

Copy of the Marriage Form for each marriage ceremony performed.
