Walls-Pulling named 2022 recipient of DSBA's Myrna L. Rubenstein Award

Delaware Superior Court staffer Tracy Walls-Pulling has been named the recipient of the 2022 Delaware State Bar Association's Myrna L. Rubenstein Professional Support Recognition award.

Walls-Pulling was presented with the honor last month, on May 2, 2022, at the DSBA's Law Day program, held at the Hotel Du Pont in Wilmington.

Walls-Pulling has been the Administrative Assistant to Judge William C. Carpenter, Jr. for the last 37 years and Judge Carpenter presented her with the award at the ceremony.

The Myrna L. Rubenstein award is given annually at Law Day events to a support staff person who has had long and dedicated service to the Bench and Bar of the State of Delaware, the Bar Association, and to members of the DSBA, and contributes in a "significant way...to the high ideals of the legal profession."

Walls-Pulling first began working with Judge Carpenter when he was appointed as United States Attorney for Delaware in 1985. She then followed Judge Carpenter to the Delaware Courts when he was named to the bench in 1993, and is currently the most senior Judicial Officer on the Superior Court bench.

"Ms. Walls-Pulling is the standard by which all who support those who work or practice in our judicial branch should strive to achieve and represents the very best of those that serve our legal community. We are privileged to work with her and grateful for her dedicated, outstanding service," said Superior Court President Judge Jan R. Jurden and Judge Carpenter.
