

Delaware Supreme Court Amends Rule 4(E) of the Rules of the Commission on Continuing Legal Education

By an order dated November 8, 2017 and effective November 8, 2017, the Delaware Supreme Court has amended Rule 4(E) of the Rules of the Commission on Continuing Legal Education. Rule 4(E) was amended so as to remain consistent with the change in format for the second day of the Court's Pre-Admission Conference, which now requires all successful applicants to the Delaware Bar to attend both days of the conference. The rule amendment is available on the Court's website.
