

Delaware Supreme Court Approves Amendments To Board of Bar Examiners Rule 51(g)

By order dated November 4, 2021, and effective retroactively to October 21, 2021, the Supreme Court has approved an amendment to Board of Bar Examiners Rule 51(g). The amendment to Rule 51(g) provides applicants who have been granted the privilege to practice pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 55 one additional opportunity to pass the Delaware bar exam before their Rule 55 privilege terminates. The Rule Amendment is available on the Supreme Court's website.
