This 7th day of October 1994, IT IS DIRECTED:

(1) If a criminal or civil case must be retried because of a mistrial having been declared or because of a ruling by the Supreme Court, the original trial judge is assigned to the case for all purposes until final disposition.

(2) An exception for "good cause" shall exist when there is a basis for recusal of the trial judge or where the judge's other trial commitments would prevent the prompt retrial of the case.
