CIVIL POST- JUDGMENT PROCEDURES
THREE JUDGE PANEL

[This information is not legal advice and not a substitute for seeking legal advice from an attorney. This information is not binding on the court if incorrect or misunderstood. It relates to frequently asked questions concerning post-judgment procedures but does not address all of the possible procedures and may not apply in your particular case. Forms for these procedures may be obtained from any Justice of the Peace Court civil location. All motions must include the name of the court, the names of the parties, the case number, the date the motion is filed with the Justice of the Peace Court and a title indicating the reason for the motion. Court costs or fees must accompany the motion, unless the person has requested, and the court determined, that the person may proceed in forma pauperis (without paying costs or fees or posting bond because they have no money to pay).]

All payments should be made directly to the prevailing party. The Court does not accept payment on judgments.

Pursuant to 10 Del. C. § 9567(b), prevailing parties are reminded of their duty to file a satisfaction of the judgment within 90 days of payment in full.

RIGHT OF REDEMPTION

Effective September 1, 2026, tenants may have the right of redemption, if the court action is brought on the sole basis of non-payment of rent and the tenant pays all past due amounts as determined by the court. For more information, see 25 Del. C. § 5716A.

FAILURE OF A PARTY TO APPEAR FOR THE PANEL TRIAL

As provided by Justice of the Peace Civil Rule 72.1(f), if the Appellant (the party who requested the appeal trial) or both parties fail to appear for the trial, the judgment of the court below shall stand unless the Appellee appears and has filed a counterclaim.

If the Appellee (the party against whom the appeal was taken) fails to appear and a DEFAULT JUDGMENT is entered, that party may file a Motion To Vacate the judgment pursuant to Justice of the Peace Civil Rule 60. The Motion must show; (1) the Appellee's failure to appear was the result of actions of a reasonably prudent person; and (2) the outcome would be different if the trial were held; and (3) the party that appeared would not be prejudiced by having the trial. The Motion must be filed within 10 days, starting the day after the judgment was signed by the De Novo Panel. A FEE OF $15.00 MUST ACCOMPANY THIS MOTION.

MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL

Either party has 10 days, starting the day after the judgment was signed by a Judge, to file a Motion For A New Trial as provided under Justice of the Peace Court Civil Rule 59. This Motion shall be in writing and shall briefly and succinctly state the reasons for the request. A Motion For A New Trial will be heard by the Panel of Judges who originally heard the case. The reasons for which a new trial may be granted are limited. For example, the reason given for requesting a new trial may be newly discovered evidence. However, for the Panel to grant a motion for a new trial based upon newly discovered evidence, the party requesting the new trial must show all of the following: (1) the newly discovered evidence is important enough to change the result in the case; (2) the evidence could not have been discovered prior to the original trial with reasonable investigation; and (3) the evidence does not merely repeat or dispute evidence presented in the original trial. A FEE OF $15.00 MUST ACCOMPANY THIS MOTION.
