

ANNOUNCEMENT

Amendment to Court of Common Pleas Criminal Rule 65

By an order dated August 25, 2020, the Court of Common Pleas for the State of Delaware has approved an amendment to Court of Common Pleas Criminal Rules with the addition of Rule 65. This Rule is effective immediately, and is available on the Court's website.

Rule 65 allows the electronic filing of documents in the Court of Common Pleas in any criminal case, category of cases, document, or category of documents so designated by the Chief Judge. The Rule requires that all electronically filed documents include the filing party's e-mail address and written or electronic signature, and provides that electronic service of such documents shall be considered proper service.
