RE: Christiana Care Health Services v. Kenneth S. Davis, No. 138, 2015

Dear Counselor:

The Corrected Opening Brief filed in the above-captioned matter does not comply with the Rules of the Supreme Court as follows:

The opening brief of appellant shall include a copy of the order or orders of judgment being appealed . . . [and] shall be inserted at the end of the opening brief, and not in the appendix. Supr. Ct. R. 14(b)(vii).<sup>1</sup>

Please correct the above deficiency on or before June 22, 2015. This does not extend any time limitations otherwise applicable under the Rules.

Because of this deficiency, you are required to e-file and e-serve a corrected brief. If you wish, you may make arrangements with this office to obtain the copies of the brief already submitted and insert the corrected pages. The Court will no longer accept individual corrected pages to be inserted into briefs and appendices. If you have any questions, please contact me.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Cathy L. Howard

<sup>1</sup> If the decision being appealed is already in the appendix, it may remain there, but a copy needs to be inserted into the brief.
